

As a United Flight Attendent I can only ask you to not let cell phone usage in the air be permitted. Our job is hard enough and this will only make matters worse. People are not nice to one another any longer. It will get out of control as alchohol has already. Please do not allow the cell phone wars. Thank you, Leonore Carlisle